Magnetic Lock for Narthex Door

The Property Committee is having a magnetic lock and keypad installed on one of the narthex doors. Following detailed discussions with staff, the committee reached a decision that we needed to improve building security during office hours. There have been several incidences in the past few months where unidentified persons have walked into the building and office area. On at least two occasions, the persons have been hostile towards staff. This lack of security can pose a risk for the children in the Weekday School. Given that there are many times during the day when there are only two to three staff members present, the committee determined that staff safety and member safety was not adequate. The magnetic lock and keypad will typically be utilized only during regular office hours (9-4p). Members and visitors can also gain access by ringing the doorbell. Staff or volunteers in the office area will be able to remotely unlock the door. After church business hours, the doors will be locked as normal and will require a key. Existing keys will continue to work as they do now. The Property Committee understands that this represents a "culture change" for our church as we pride ourselves on being welcoming. However, we also need to provide our staff, members, and guests with a safe and secure environment. If you have questions or concerns, please contact Wayne Mullis, Property Committee Chair, at waynenc54@gmail.com.

BMPC Easter Brunch help needed

Easter is April 16. One tradition here at BMPC is to have Easter Brunch between the two worship services from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. Please call the church office or sign up in the narthex if you are able to bring a favorite dish to share. Thank you!

The deadline for the May BMPC Window is Monday, April 17.

Extended Session Leaders needed

Alice Patton is looking for a new team to be extended session leaders. Commitment is once every other month (only 6 times a year). Great opportunity to get to know some of the children and young families of our congregation. Please contact Alice if you are interested.

BMPC Sewing Ministry

We welcome folks to join our group and the only requirement is that you can operate a pair of scissors and an iron! If you are interested, please just show up at our next meeting. We meet every other Thursday and our meetings this month are April 13 and 27 at 1:00 p.m. We will be finishing up quilts for church members and Weekday School families. We always welcome donations: fabric, sewing machines, notions, batting, etc. If you have questions, call Ruth Duckworth at 828-775-4974.

In Our Community

Urgent need: men's medium and large underwear regularly needed items: socks, white t-shirts/ undershirts, clean towels (in any condition), wash cloths, and toiletries, especially the small hotel sized ones.

Help for Susan's Master of Health Science degree

As part of the requirements for completing a Master of Health Science degree program at Western Carolina University, I will be conducting a research project designed to measure the impact of a Bone Health Education program for women 50 years of age or older. I am looking for volunteers to sign on as my research subjects. The program will be run during the months of April and May at the Black Mountain Library. If you are willing and interested in learning more about this project, please contact me at sldannenber1@catamount.wcu.edu or (828) 230-6460. It's sure to be a learning experience for me and you!
—Susan Dannenberg (aka Isaac's mom)

MA-I (the music and art initiative at BMPC) participants will present a mini-musical Sunday, April 2, at the 11AM worship service.

The group has been working on Terry Kirkland's "Through the Roof" throughout the weeks of winter and are anxious to share it with you! The musical is based on Luke 5.17-26 and children have explored themes of compassion, friendship and hospitality in their weekly rehearsals. The children have created the backdrop for the musical under the direction of Ruth Duckworth and Mary Hunnicutt and have enjoyed drama coaching provided by Franklin Harris. The group will be directed in the performance by our music scholar, David Joseph and accompanied by Mike Barker. Please plan to join us!

The Open Table Team, led by BMPC member chef Paul Drummond, was honored Sunday, March 12, at Black Mountain United Methodist Church, celebrating two successful years serving meals to the community. Every Wednesday, at lunch time, neighbors are welcomed to eat the savory meals prepared by the Open Table crew and served in friendship to all who come. This donation-only project operates in the black and continues to bring the neighborhood together. Made possible by the expertise of the chef and the many dedicated hours of volunteers from faith communities, the Open Table is a bright spot in Black Mountain.

BMPC YOUTH LEARNING LIFE SKILLS FEBRUARY 26

High School Youth had a delicious dinner provided by Charlie, Melissa, and Sarah Wilson followed by Real Life Skills, which included Sewing Buttons with Kitty Kelly and Summer Kirkpatrick (including laundry tips); Navy Clothes Folding with Reid; Car Repairs with Joseph; and Map Reading (sans GPS) and Toilet/Sink Plunging with Bruce.

SENIOR NIGHT FEBRUARY 19

Based off of our well-loved previous Campfire Questions with Berry and Advisor programs, where adult youth advisors responded to questions generated by high school youth. We gathered in the Layman's home to listen to the wisdom of seven of our high school seniors as they thoughtfully responded to a variety of serious and silly questions about life and faith in high school posed by their peers. Our seniors are facing the photo.

Thank you BMPC for your continued support of BMPC Youth Ministry through the regular church budget and through Potato Lunch donations. We have a vibrant and growing youth ministry program that is faithfully passing on the faith to the next generation.

Stations of the Cross on Good Friday

On Good Friday, April 14, Black Mountain Presbyterian Church will host a Stations of the Cross processional through downtown Black Mountain which will bring together a variety of denominational churches in a commemoration of the final day of the life of Jesus. There will be a light lunch served in the fellowship hall at noon and then the event will begin at 12:30 p.m. in the fellowship hall parking lot of BMPC.

There will be 12 stations located at churches and community sites along the route. And we will use art, reflections and prayers created by A Sanctified Art to remember the last week in Jesus' life. The ancient tradition of the 'Way of the Cross' originated in the Holy Land where pilgrims to this day trace the footsteps of Christ to Mount Calvary. Over the centuries the practice has spread to communities all over the world, so that people wouldn't need to travel to the Holy Land to experience the power of following in the footsteps of Jesus.

The Stations of the Cross event is sponsored by the Swannanoa Valley Ministry Association and will culminate the Annual Lenten services in Black Mountain.

HS YOUTH BIG CRAFTY MARCH 12

Thank you to our dinner chefs and our craft instructors for a great night of yummy food and thoughtful crafts to share with those who are hurting here in our community.

25th Presbyterian/United Methodist House Hensley Family has a Home!

On Friday, February 10, a happy group of homeowners, volunteers, donors, and supporters gathered at Biltmore United Methodist Church to enjoy a chili lunch, followed by the dedication of five new Habitat homes in the historic Shiloh community.

Cindy Hensley, along with four other Habitat Partner Families, received ceremonial keys to their new homes from members of the community that partnered with them to help build their houses. There were many words of gratitude spoken, lots of laughter, and a few tears.

Cindy officially closed on their home February 22, excited to become a first-time homeowner!

Habitat is so much more than a roof and walls. Security! Stability! Safety!

Our church donated a grand total of 231.50 work hours this year. Last year, our hours were 180.5. We had 23 volunteers – 14 women; 9 men. Our church rocks!

A special SHOUT OUT AND THANKS to MARGIE STANSELL, who personally worked 18 hours on this home.

Thank you BMPC for all you do and have done. We are so grateful that you share Habitat's vision of a world in which everyone has a decent place to live. Together, we have made a dream come true for the Hensley's.

A Hope Team Reports Urgent Need: Men's Underwear

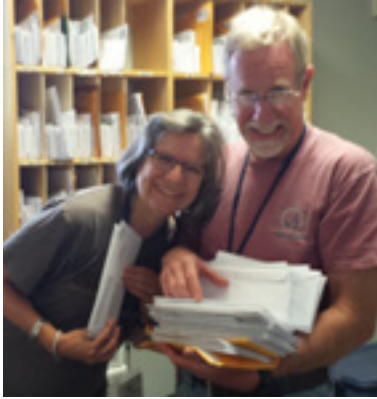

The BMPC A Hope Team, led by Betsy and John Murphy, recently celebrated a year of service to the area's homeless community. The second Sunday of each month, a rotating group from the A Hope team work at the Asheville A Hope Day Center.

The Center provides showers, mail receipt, phone service, and storage for homeless people in the community. About 200 people visit A HOPE each day and when someone in our community becomes homeless, it is often the first stop on the journey to permanent housing. Volunteers from the A Hope team greet visitors, hand out towels and soap, make coffee, work in the mail room and perform other clerical activities that give the professional staff time to work directly with their clients.

Even inclement weather doesn't stop them. On March 12, snow and all, John and Betsy Murphy managed to drive to Asheville to help the regular staff on a day when shelter and warmth were particularly needed.

Because of the generosity of BMPC and some other neighborhood donations, they were able to take a new batch of towels on Sunday, but they report, the center's supply of underwear was very low.

One of the great services for people who use the center is the opportunity to take a shower. Each person gets a clean towel and a new pair of underwear, when available. Recently, they were unable to provide this most basic clothing need and we are asked to step up to help.

Especially needed are men's medium and large underwear. Other regular needed items include socks, white t-shirts/ undershirts, clean towels (in any condition), wash cloths, and toiletries, especially the small hotel sized ones.

All donations can be left in the wicker hamper in the Narthex marked "A Hope Gives Hope."

We celebrate the service of the A-Hope team and become their partners in extending a sense of dignity to those in our midst who lack permanent housing by donating items or volunteering to be part of the A Hope Team. For more information, contact Betsy and John Murphy: jbmurphy5@gmail.com.

Volunteers Needed Room In The Inn – April 30-May 7

Van drivers, meal providers, mattress movers, and overnight hosts are needed and no experience is required. All you need is an open heart and a little time. Before- and on-the-job training is provided!

What you need to know

Room in the Inn (RITI) houses up to 12 homeless women at a time, in a different host church or agency each week. The RITI program is coordinated by Homeward Bound in Asheville, which provides case management services to the women enrolled while they are waiting for and after they find permanent housing.

Homeward Bound is a "housing first" agency, believing that a homeless person's primary need is for permanent housing. Only with safe and dependable housing can homeless persons focus on their other issues. Between 2009 and 2016, RITI hosted 289 individual women and found permanent housing for 107 of those. The retention rate for those placed in permanent housing is an impressive 91.5%.

The women enrolled in RITI are at the host churches from dinner time each evening until breakfast the next morning, after which they go back to Homeward Bound's

A Hope Day Center in Asheville. During the days, the women may go to jobs or job interviews, support group meetings, medical appointments, and so forth.

BMPC has been a host church for RITI every year since 2003. We will be using the Black Mountain United Methodist Church House again this year.

What we do

Host churches provide the women a hot evening meal, breakfast, and a bag lunch to take with them into Asheville during the day. We also provide van transportation morning and night to and from A-Hope. Two volunteers are needed at the host church from 6 p.m. until 6:30 a.m. The overnight volunteers take turns staying awake, and there is a volunteer room with two single beds in it for the volunteer off duty to sleep in. RITI coordinators from both the church and Homeward Bound are available by phone at all times in case questions or emergencies arise. We will also need volunteers for moving lightweight mattresses from our church house to the Methodist Church House before our host week, taking the linens back to Mission Hospital on Monday, May 8, and delivering blankets and mattress pads to and from a local laundromat for wash/dry/fold service after our hosting week ends.

How to learn more and/or volunteer

Sign up in the narthex on any of these Sundays: March 19, April 2, or April 9. Call or email Scottie Cannon: scottiecannon1@gmail.com (cell) 828-273-1015

Weekday School Giraffe Class goes Stargazing

April and Scott Roy hosted a Stargazing Party for the Four-year-old class of the Weekday School. April's class spent much of February studying space and culminated that with a night of looking at the moon and planets through telescopes. It was a beautiful clear evening and much fun was had by all!

Thank you BMPC

for a great Potato Lunch on March 5. The total collected was $1,123 – a generous donation to help offset youth trip costs!

The Children's Sermon from the book, Kneeling in Jerusalem by Ann Weems

When the time came for the children's sermon, the congregation enjoyed the flurry of small bodies, popping up here and there, racing to the front of the sanctuary which, like the children, was Easter-clad. One small child, bottle in hand, went down the aisle past the Communion table to the steps in front of the pulpit, and sat with the others.

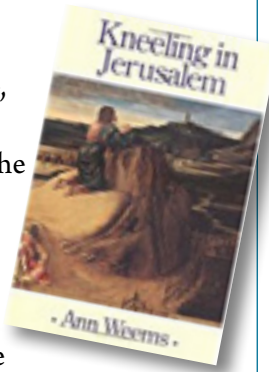

The minister greeted them and began by asking them to hold out their hands. Not wanting to be left out, the child with the bottle placed it on the table, the table that had been properly prepared for Holy Communion.

Whether the congregation Grimaced or grinned, I cannot say, but some report to have heard an extravagance of bells that Easter Sunday, when a plastic bottle, filled with the nourishment of life for this small child, stood beside the silver cup and plate filled with the nourishment of life for the souls of all present.

Of such is the kingdom of heaven....

Easter books for children and adults are on the display cart.

Confirmation Process

Eleven Confirmation youth and their covenant partners have been meeting regularly for the past two months talking about their faith and belief in Jesus Christ. Continue to pray for these youth as they consider making public professions of faith and becoming full members of BMPC.

70+ Church Bus Drivers

The Property Committee now has a process in place to allow persons age 70 and above to drive the church bus. There is a form from the insurance company that requires a doctor's signature stating that the person is fit to drive without restrictions. We encourage anyone that has "aged out" in the past to consider having their medical doctor complete the form. Once the form is completed, the person is approved to drive. A form can be picked up from Jen Thorstad in the church office. For questions or more information, please contact Wayne Mullis @828-668-4582 or waynenc54@gmail.com.

Dear BMPC friends,

Thank you for hosting the Maryville College Let the River Run spring tour. Your hospitality and the warm reception were exceptional! Thanks to all who prepared food and hosted our students. A most special thanks to Mike Barker and the choir for all of their work in coordinating the arrangements. Maryville College students will always remember your kindness and support, and the gracious welcome at Black Mountain PC!

Not Getting Church Emails?

Recently we changed our method of sending all-church emails to a more efficient, newsletter-style email program called Constant Contact. Many Google users will notice that these emails are being routed to a Google folder called "Promotions." Here are some step-by-step instructions on how to fix your Google inbox in order to receive church emails. As always, if you have any problems, please contact Jen in the church office at (828) 669-2725 ext. 1110 or email her at jen@bmpcnc.org

2 To fix this, go to Settings (which is under your Google picture circle) at the top right-hand corner of the page. The Settings icon looks like a little gear. Choose "Configure inbox"

3 Then check (or uncheck) the categories/boxes you want. A suggestion is to unclick "Social" and "Promotions" and just leave "PRIMARY".

A Holy Conversation at BMPC

We are beginning an exciting process of strategic planning for BMPC. The Session has appointed an energetic and diverse group to form our new Strategic Planning Ministry Team. Members of the team are Wayne Mullis, Gay Mothershed, Joseph Mathews, Beth Gunn, Karen Davis, Alison Banzhoff, and Skip Stansell. With the guidance of Mary Katherine, consultant, Art Ross, and a wonderful planning guide: Holy Conversations: Strategic Planning as a Spiritual Practice for Congregations, we are looking forward to our work together.

As we begin our work, Art Ross has helped us understand that our congregation can do anything. But, we cannot do everything. The purpose of the Holy Conversations we will have as a congregation is to discern and prioritize our mission opportunities. When strategic planning is understood as a process of discernment, it becomes a means to an intentional process of learning and questioning, in which leaders and members are continuously engaged in conversations with one another and with God as we seek to be faithful and authentic to our beliefs.

The Session has charged our ministry team to take the lead in engaging in Holy Conversations to discern our congregations spiritual, relational, and programmatic needs and to relate these needs to future staffing patterns, facility needs, space use, and available financial resources.

We have a profound challenge and opportunity. We look forward to the Holy Conversations that are already beginning to take place in our congregation as we seek to understand and be faithful to what God is calling us to be and to do at BMPC. —Skip Stansell
